

S/4HANA for international trade or SAP GTS – That’s the Question!

	Compliance Management			Classification	Customs Management		Intrastat	Trade Preference
	Sanctioned Party List Screening	Legal Control	Embargo	Classification	Customs Management	Customs Warehouse/ Foreign Trade Zone	Intrastat	Trade Preference
Global Trade Services
	Supported integrated with Order to Cash (O2C) and Procure to Pay (P2P) process in S/4HANA, TM Freight Orders in S/4HANA Transportation Management	Supports nested licenses and agreements. Can calculate content based on local/external Bill of Materials. Supports ITAR, de-minimis, US Re-export etc.	Full and partial embargo supported. Regional and Product embargos supported through legal control. Integrated with O2C, P2P in S/4HANA	Supported. Commodity, HS, ECCN, USML, Other Governmental Agencies eg FDA	Direct customs filing for selected countries. Customs filing through broker enablement.	Supports EU Customs warehouse, Inward and Outward Processing, Processing under Customs Control, Foreign Trade Zone, Processing Trade (China).	Equal functionality. Can connect to both ECC and S/4HANA (multiple ERPs)	Supports inbound LTSD, aggregation, preference determination in O2C and P2P and outbound LTSD.
S/4HANA for international trade*
Identical functionality provided in S/4HANA Cloud C1 (aka Public Cloud) and S/4HANA Cloud C2 (aka Private Cloud)	Not supported. SPL is available through integration with SAP Watch List Screening.	Simple license management. Cannot manage nested licenses/agreements. Cannot calculate content/handle Bill of Materials. Does not support ITAR, de-minimis, US-Re-export etc.	Full embargo supported (all against 1). Integrated with O2C, P2P.	Supported. Commodity and HS, ECCN.	Not supported *S/4HANA can integrate seamlessly with Global Trade Services	Not supported.	Equal functionality. Can only consume local data (own instance of S/4HANA)	Not supported. Trade Preference requires content aggregation/local or external Bill of Material. This functionality is not available in S/4HANA. *S/4HANA can integrate seamlessly with Global Trade Services